Intellectual Property Symposium and Award Ceremony at the Faculty of Law, University of Benin.

We are pleased to announce the recognition of our firm as the IP Firm of the Year, and our Partner John C. Onyido as the IP Advocate Lawyer of the Year, for initiating a paradigm shift in the IP landscape and for promoting creativity and technological innovation in Nigeria, at the recently-concluded Intellectual Property Symposium and Award ceremony at University of Benin held on 31st August 2018.

John Onyido was the lead speaker at the event and spoke on “You and IP Law – The System that Promotes Innovation and Creativity”. He addressed the significance of IP in promoting innovation and creativity and identified IP as a veritable tool that ensures adequate protection for creatives. Read the paper delivered here:
